At Photo Sciences, we take your privacy very seriously. We are NOT in the business of selling, renting, or disclosing your personally identifiable information to others. We have created this statement to describe our commitment to your privacy.

What information do we gather and track?

We record IP addresses (the internet address of a computer) to track sessions on our site. Tracking helps us to ensure the security of our site and to identify the parts and pages of our site that are visited.

- However, if you:
- Create a new account,
- Fill out a survey or sign on to a page that requires authorization,
- Transfer Data or files, or
- Enter into any other transaction with us,

You may be asked to provide us your name, e-mail address, company name, phone number, fax number, postal address, credit card number (for purchases), and possibly other personal information. We may use this information you provide to:

- Provide you information, products and / or services that you may have requested
- Keep you informed of new products and / or services we may offer.
- Provide helpful hints on how to use our products and / or services,
- Improve our site and the services we offer.

Cookies and how we use them

Cookies are unique text files that are sent to your browser from a web server. As you browse our web site, cookies are placed on your computers hard drive to facilitate the operation of our on-line business services during your visit to our site. Typically, the cookies contain the session ID and other data related to your "Current" connection to our site. We do not collect information or record information contained in the cookies.

How do we use the information we gather and track?

The information collected will be used for normal course of business and processing orders. On occasion we may use the information for personalizing your procurement experience, promotions, announcements, special offers, etc. Please see the Opt-in or Opt-out section below.

With whom we may share your information?

We may sometimes engage agents or contractors to perform services necessary to our operations (for example, delivery of products, manufacture of components, product specific services, etc.). When we do, we may give them access to name, company, address or other information to assist them in performing their job us, but not for any other purpose.

In the unlikely event our company is ever sold or its assets were ever sold, our customer database naturally would be transferred to the new owner.

Except as described above, and except as may be required by law, we will not disclose your personally identifiable information to others without your consent. In order to guard your non-public personal information from unauthorized disclosure, we maintain physical, electronic and procedural safe guards that comply with our professional standards.

Opt-in or Opt-Out

You can subscribe or unsubscribe from any of our product update lists. Our product update lists will be used to send subscribers any announcements (product information, special offers, etc.) relevant to the list(s) in which you are subscribed.

Correcting or updating personal information

If your personally identifiable information changes, or if you no longer desire our services, you will be able to correct, update or remove your personal data provided to us. This can be accomplished by contacting Photo Sciences via phone, or mail communication.
